NO. 21

NEWS OF THE VICINAGE.

There will be 16 sweet girl graduates at the Jessamine Institute this session. Dr. Charles E. Smoot, a homeopath, has been chosen city physician for Richmond.

Gold assaying $10 to the ton of ore, has been discovered in the vicinity of Husb Branch, Casey county.

The Madison fiscal court refused to make the annual appropriation of $600 to Pattle A. Clay Infirmary.

A child of Will Cox, of Mt. Vernon, coughed up a grain of corn that had been in its windpipe 41 days.

Edwin Newell Owens, aged 16, of Somerset, has invented a device to prevent fudding beds from closing on the sleeper.

Miss Mary Letcher, daughter of Col. W. R. Letcher, of Richmond, who has just graduated in medicine, will hang out her shingle in that city.

Gov. Beckham has pardoned John Dugan, who was serving a 21-year sentence in the Frankfort penitentiary for killing John Colson in Bell county several years ago. Dugan has gone to Nashville to live.

The editor of the Corbin Pathfinder, who favors opening saloons there, says: "Our people must be the biggest hearted or the biggest fool folks on earth. We wade in mud the year round just to get to run blind tigers."

Maj. W. H. Turner, 48, and only 33 when the war closed, Capt. J. W. Brooks, who was 35 when the war closed, Rev. Stephen Wesley, who was 35 and J. W. Campbell who was 34, will attend the Confederate reunion and be noted as the four youngest of the veterans.

After trying the contract system of making the roads, at a cost of about $11,000 a year, the fiscal court of Madison voted to return to the old "free" system of "worming in" every man from 15 to 45 years, and requiring them to work the roads so many days each year without compensation.

Edward Cusie, of Washington county, was disarmed by the U. S. commissioner at Lebanon, on the charge of violating the postal laws. Cusie wrote to Elbert Downs, of that county, a postal card telling him he must settle a certain debt or he would go to law with it.

Wm. Heather, of Irvine, started with ex Sheriff James F. West to Kansas City to bring back Joe M. McDowell, the defaulting cashier of the Estill County Deposit Bank, who was arrested as he passed through Winchester on a charge of stealing saw logs and the court being in session, he got a year in the pen.

H. F. Millenmeyer, the Lexington nurseryman, says: "The danger of frost is over practically over. There is not one chance in a hundred that it will do any damage from now on. In the last 60 years no frost has occurred in Kentucky as late in the season as May 12th, except in 1864. The prospect for every kind of fruit this year is very flattering, indeed."

The rich Withers Stakes at Morris Park were won by W. C. Whitney's Kentucky bred colt, Klimarnock, which beat the highly valued Mesmerist by two lengths.

Lakespur, owned by Dr. Leach, of Danville, won the Frank Febr stakes at Louisville Saturday. Charley O'Brien was second and Skillman third.

George Wilkes shied the dams of 148 performers, 42 double purchasers, 10 that produced three each, and five that produced four each.

A handsome monument marks the resting place of Sweepstakes, the dam of Star Pointer, 1894.

MASS CONVENTION.

There will be a mass convention of the democrats of Lincoln county at the court house in Stanford, Ky., Saturday June 10th, at 2 P. George W. Barney, div. pass. agent, C. & O. Ry., Lexington.

The women claim to be able to tell right away whether a neighborhood is healthy. The way they do it is to see whether the doctor's house has got lace curtains or not.

LANCASTER.

The strawberry supper given by the young ladies was well attended and all were satisfied.

The opera house will be filled Tuesday night to witness the production of "A Kentucky Hero."

Mrs. Mary A. McDonald has sold her handsome residence on Lexington Avenue to Mr. J. Fleese Robinson, Jr., for $34,500.

Marshal James Pierce has killed 15 dogs and collected $10 on the life of that many more since the ordinance requiring a tag costing $1, to be placed on them.

Mr. John Johnson, age 65 years, fell from a ladder and fractured a leg, from which he has suffered considerably. Drs. Grant, Bush and Herring dressed the limb.

Messrs. J. J. Walker, Ed Price and others have been forced to replant corn on account of a failure to sprout, and the worms destroying that which grew above the surface.

Mr. James Dillon asks the young ladies of Lancaster and vicinity to help him decorate the court room for the Gordon lecture on the 21st, and for G. A. R. headquarters. Please report to him at once.

The trustees of the graded school met Saturday and selected the present faculty for next year, except one who did not apply. This action of the board will meet with general approval, and Prof. Patterson is to be especially congratulated on his successful work as president.

Senator G. T. Farris has the disposition of a free scholarship to the law department of the Nashville college, and it will be awarded to any worthy young man or lady on application to him. It is a good school and the scholarship is worth $100. Applicants must reside in the 18th Senatorial district.

Harry Simpson, colored, one of the three prisoners who broke jail, is in a cell again, having been found at Nicholasville. He will now have to answer the charge of stealing a bicycle from Willie Fox Logan, which he rode when making his escape. Jailor Ross has offered a liberal reward for the arrest of the other two and he has labored hard to locate them. It is now confidently believed that they will soon be arrested.

In view of the fact that Senator Farris was true and fearless during the late session of the Legislature, when the perilous times required men of nerve and ability, his many friends are desirous of rewarding him by sending him as a delegate from this district to the National convention. The Garrard democracy nominates him and asks for a favorable response from the entire district. What say you boys?

"Woman Triumphant," or Congress of 1900, was given at the opera house Friday night by young ladies and gentlemen of Nicholasville, to a good audience, considering the number of attractions we have had lately. The play was in keeping with the tendency of the age, and the characters elicited frequent applause. The music was especially good. It was my good fortune to meet the genial Harry McCarty, of the Jessamine Journal, on that occasion.

Messrs. I. R. Hughes and Forrest McClary were here Sunday. Mr. J. M. Higginbotham will entertain Gen. Gordon on the 24th. Uncle Clabe Lear is in very poor health. Mr. John S. Marrs, of Richmond, is here with relatives. Mr. F. B. Flesinger is in Cincinnati. Dr. John H. Duncan, of Kirksville, and Miss Viola Aldridge will be married at the home of the bride near Marksburg, Wednesday. Mrs. W. C. McFarland, of New York, has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. R. A. Hurnside, and Capt. Louis Landrum.

By common consent we use a true and tried horse when we have a rough road and a heavy load. We select that kind of a man when the times require consistent action, a cool head, long experience and undoubted ability. We are in the midst of just such times now and Gov. James B. McCreary is just the man for the occasion. He has made a model governor and he will be equal to any emergency if elected next November. Brave, true, tried, capable and a sure winner. I nominate him for re-election. Let me hear from all sections of the State on this important question.

The K. P. A. will begin its meeting at Louisville, July 23, and that night take the Monon for Chicago, where the party will remain until noon, when they leave for Milwaukee. Madison, Waukesha, Minneapolis and St. Paul will also be visited en route to Duluth, where a two days' stop will be made. The entire journey will be made from Chicago over the Chicago & North-western railroad. The outing will consume eight days.

His brother-in-law, B. Y. Hobbs, at Preschersville, is very low with consumption and Mrs. John McKenzie at Romland is very ill of heart trouble. H. H. Baker is visiting relatives in Lincoln. Thomas, of Pine Hill, is very low from dropsy. H. C. Broughton and J. H. Sowder were here from Laurel Monday.

GLORIOUS NEWS.

Come from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help, but her cure is complete and her health is excellent. This shows what the Bitters has proved—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by Penny, Druggist."

Some ingenious individual has invented an article to moisten stiffly starched button holes. Perhaps it is a good thing in its way, but altogether inferior in value to an invention that will find a dropped collar button.

A FOLLOWER OF MEASLES.—In many instances a persistent cough follows an attack of measles. In speaking of this Mr. Walter B. Deel, editor of the Elkin, N. C. Times, says: "Three weeks ago I had an attack of measles which left me with a bad cough. I took several doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the cough has entirely disappeared. I consider Chamberlain's medicines the best on the market." For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

Sold by Penny, Druggist.

Paderewski has gone back to Europe with $250,000 in gold as the result, net of his last trip. People seem to think there is something in him in addition to the balr outside.

One quarter of the people on the earth die before the age of six, one half before the age of 16, and only one out of each 100 born, lives to be 65.

"Incurable infirmities," meaning inoperable of limitation, has been admitted into Dr. Murray's new English dictionary.

Allen, who is in Louisville under treatment, is doing nicely. Miss Lou Hocker continues ill. Lou Holmes was here Sunday as usual.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

Ed Spencer, who killed Miss Lizzie Swane, because she refused to marry him, was let off with a life sentence at Canaan, Ind.

A jury returned a verdict of $25,000 against a wealthy widow for alienating the affections of another woman's husband at Philadelphia.

The best laid plans of mice and men gang aft aglee. Francisco Abbeletti killed another Italian at Camden, N. J., in order to marry his widow and ran his head into a halter instead. He was hanged Friday.

James Garrard Stevenson, the grandson of a former governor of Kentucky, whose deathbed marriage to his divorced wife three weeks ago, created a great stir, died at his residence, 6432, Washington Avenue, Chicago. At the dying man's bedside stood the wife he had twice married, and it was to her that his last words were spoken.

After copying our notice of the prospective nuptials, the Progressive Home Journal, of Somerset, says that it has held a scoop upon this choice bit of news for months, waiting for the home paper of the charming young lady to speak. This writer has known Miss Lynn from childhood and her parents from infancy. She comes of two of the oldest, most respectable families of the county and could not be other than a first prize. We are glad, for old acquaintance sake, that Joe Claunch has fairly won her; and for his sake, we are jubilant. Joe has lived here long enough and behaved himself well enough, to be known and dearly loved by the entire population of the county. He has been a very hard man to marry, and it is yet thought by a few people that this is possibly another original advertising scheme of Claunch & Co. When you see the future Mrs. Mayme Lynn Claunch, you will very readily understand why Joe has not married before.

Just listen at our good friend, B. J. Newton, of the Owenton Herald, who is partial enough to say: We believe it is conceded by common consent that the Stanford Interior Journal stands at the head of country newspapers in the State, and it is also true that no one is at all envious of the hard-working, untiring, indefatigable and enterprising Walton. His success in the business is without parallel. Although his office was not so long ago treated to a new outfit, it is his purpose to put in at once newer and still more improved machinery.

C. & O. SCENIC PLAYING CARDS.—We have just received a new lot of scenic playing cards. Each card has an exquisite engraving of a bit of scenery along the line and there are 53 different scenes. The United States government has decided to make some changes in the smokeless powder used in the army, as it appears to have proved more dangerous to our soldiers than to the enemy.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - MAY 15, 1900

W. P. WALTON.

The editor of the Ceylon Standard, published at Colombo, sends us a marked copy of his paper in which he attempts to show how important it is for the British to end the war with the Boers at an early date as possible. Says he: "The democratic party, as represented by Mr. Bryan, has decided upon a pro-Boer course and we believe that this will continue in an increasing degree until November draws near. Free silver and great social reforms will recede into the back ground, and Mr. Bryan and his lieutenants will pledge themselves if elected to bring about the active intervention of the United States on the part of the Boers. Should Mr. Bryan be elected, then the situation will be of the gravest import, should the war not have terminated by that time." Then the intensely English subject, having wrought himself up to the climax, closes his screed with, "We trust Mr. Bryan will be defeated at the polls in November. In the interests of the United States and of the civilization of the whole world, this is greatly to be desired. For any man to be placed in a position such as that of president of the United States of America without a full grasp of the enormous responsibilities entrusted to him, is a calamity of huge dimensions." That's the way all the English reason. They recognize that the democratic party is the party of the people and sympathizes with the oppressed of every nation, tribe and tongue. It stands ready too to give aid and succor to such people and the prospect of Mr. Bryan's election is giving the British deep concern. It will thus be seen that the democrats, not only have to fight the republicans, the trusts, combines, the flesh and the devil, but the combined powers of the old world. It is equal to the task, however, and the very fact that such a combination is enlisted against the success of the party will make the members fight all the more earnestly. Bryan can be elected and he will be, if the cool heads of conservative men will direct the determined masses, who long for a chance to make this a government of the people, by the people, for the people.

The republicans of Marion county seem lost to all sense of honor, truth or shame. Their resolutions endorsing Taylor and the miserable crowd of assassins are a little more infamous than any we have read, and when they say that there "has not been adduced one scintilla of evidence connecting any of the republican State officials, or other republicans, with the murder of Goebel," they utter so patent a falsehood that it is hardly necessary to comment on it. The man or set of men, who can recall all the circumstances connected with the assassination before and after and can understand the meaning of the direct testimony given at the trials of the suspects for bail, and then say no "scintilla of evidence has been adduced" to connect the republican State officials, or other republicans with the crime, are either so blindly partisan that they would not believe though one arose from the dead, or lie knowingly, wickedly and maliciously.

The assassination organs exclaim with one accord, "Taylor is not guilty of the murder of Mr. Goebel." Nobody ever accused him of firing the shot or of actually causing the death of his political rival, but all the circumstances, together with sworn evidence, show that he had at least a guilty knowledge of the crime, even if for the sake of his apologists we refrain from saying that they all show that he conspired with those who did actually commit the murder. The grand jury has probably charged this and the people are willing that the courts shall pass on his guilt or innocence. The verdict of subsidized newspapers don't go.

This raid of the republican officials on the post-office funds in Cuba show how the rapacious army of office holders, appointed to pay political debts, do when they get a chance. There is rich pickings for the faithful in our new "dependencies" and the loot of public funds and the robbery of the people will equal if not exceed that of the carpet baggers in the South during the period of reconstruction. If the republicans are not turned out of power, the present administration is manufacturing reasons every day for a change in governmental affairs and democratic prospects grow and brighten.

A DISPATCH from Washington says that the subcommittee on elections and privileges No. 1 has decided to report the Gilbert-Davison contest in favor of the sitting member, Mr. Gilbert, by a practically unanimous vote. Davison certainly must have had no case at all or the republicans would have followed their precedent of unseating the democrat if the slightest grounds can be found for it. Now let the gray gelding try conclusions with Mr. Gilbert again and get himself beaten by 2,600.

EDITOR PAT McDONALD, of the Frankfort Argus, tells how the assistant adjutant general under Taylor, J. K. Dixon, in full uniform, called at his residence, and after ringing the door bell, he appeared to find the ex-officer with his hand on his pistol. Dixon asked if he was responsible for an article in the Argus which had been published in the Argus, and after being told that he was, began to curse and abuse him. Instead of shooting the heart out of him as most men would, Mr. McDonald, being a law-abiding man, let Dixon curse till he got through and then had him arrested. The doughty general may think his stars he struck a man, who believes in the supremacy of the law or he would not have lived to see Taylor go out in disgrace. It takes a great deal of self-possession to submit to curses at one's own castle and Mr. McDonald in that regard is one in a thousand. Few people could have stood the strain and we hardly believe that Mr. McDonald should have done so.

THE supreme court has given Taylor by its silence one more week to play the sympathy racket, but he will drop with a dull thud, (we hope the expression will not grate on his nerves) after next Monday. That court is bound to decide that it has no jurisdiction in the matter.

The republican State convention will be held next Thursday to send delegates to the National convention. A later convention will have to be held for the nomination of a candidate for governor, if Taylor is thrown down by the supreme court.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL furnished the news of the failure yesterday of the supreme court to decide the governorship case to nearly all the points reached by local telephone. The interest is wide spread.

THE LATEST.

LOUISVILLE, May 15, 8:30 A. M.—The Whitley county republicans have sharp controversy before adopting resolutions expressing confidence in the innocence of Finley.

Thomas Kne, a Beckham militia private, was accidentally shot and killed by James Robertson, a comrade, who is in jail. Kne was from Lexington.

C. D.—The following was received at this office yesterday and posted for the benefit of the court day crowd:

NO DECISION.—LOUISVILLE, May 14, 1 P. M.—There was no decision by the supreme court in the Kentucky governorship case today. It will be given next Monday. There was no reason assigned for the delay.

SOMERSET, May 14.—The Wayne county republicans in convention at Monticello today expressed confidence in Taylor, Bradley, Yost and Sweeney, endorsed McKinley and Taylor and instructed for Taylor, Bradley, Denny and White, colored, for delegates from the State at large and John W. Tuttle and Judge Vincent Boreling from the district. Hon. W. R. Ramsey, of London, was named as elector. F. J. C.

ABOUT CONSPIRATORS AND ASSASSINS.—W. S. Taylor, who has joined Charley Finley and others of the alleged conspirators at Indianapolis, told a reporter yesterday that if the supreme court's decision is against him, he will hardly come back to Kentucky for the present.

Whether Howard be innocent or guilty, he has set an example of manhood which greater men might imitate with profit to themselves. It fits a fugitive from justice to talk at long and safe range about his willingness to face the music. Nor does it much become a prisoner behind the bars to make stump speeches. All in good time with the case of the State versus the murderers of William Goebel be tried, and it will be fairly tried according to the evidence and the law. Let the organs of assassination put that in their pipes and smoke it.—Courier Journal.

POLITICIANS AND POLITICS.

Kinsley J. Hampton, of Kentucky, has been appointed assistant quartermaster, with the rank of captain in the volunteer army.

If the majority of nominations could decide the presidency, the next president would be the man who could beat Wharton Barker.

It is claimed by those in a position to know, that 10 or 12 of the leading trusts have promised a campaign fund this year amounting to $6,200,000.

George Fred Williams is of German parentage. His father's name was George Weitzigman, but had it changed by act of the Legislature to Williams. The Louisiana Legislature, which met yesterday, will elect two Senators. The proposition to establish an armory plant was defeated in the Senate by a vote of 22 to 24.

By the narrow margin of two votes, the House unseated Mr. Crawford, democrat, of North Carolina, and gave the seat to Pearson, republican. This is the third democrat unseated by the present House.

The Somerset Paragon says that Mrs. W. S. Taylor and daughters will likely spend the summer at Rock Castle Springs. That paper is hardly reckless enough to guess where the husband and father will spend his—perhaps in jail.

A vote for the republican party means an endorsement of Great Britain's destruction of the two little South African republics; the single gold standard; trusts and imperialism. Do you want them?—White Hall (III) Register.

The enemies of democracy in this State are busily engaged in telling the democrats what they must do to be saved. The simplest and surest way to salvation is to do the reverse of what these minions of the devil prescribe.—Louisville Times.

The present judges of the supreme court are Melville C. Fuller, John M. Harlan, Horace Gray, David J. Brewer, Henry B. Brown, George Shiras, Edward D. White, Rufus W. Peckham, Joseph McKenna. About two thirds of them were appointed by republican presidents.

The Pulaski republicans of Palaski put James Denton at the head of the list of delegates to Louisville and Judge Thus. Z. Morrow to London. The convention endorsed McKinley, Taylor and Bradley, denounced the Goebel law and extended sympathy to those indicted for killing Gov. Goebel.

It is said that the charges against Collector Sapp, that he had an employee of the L. & N. engaged last year in levying upon the internal revenue force in his distict, a five per cent. monthly assessment under the guise of voluntary contributions to the campaign fund of the railway political trusts, will be investigated.

Postmaster Hanbury, of Eddyville, who 11 months ago fell off a high railroad trestle and broke both arms, both legs, fractured his ribs, cracked his skull and otherwise skinned, bruised and cut his person, is now able to be out. You can't kill a republican, and nobody ever heard of one dying.—Frankfort Democrat.

Pugh and Boreling, of Kentucky, who have been shedding crocodile tears around Washington for the last six months about men being elected to office in Kentucky and defrauded out of it, are on record here as voting to deprive Mr. Crawford, of North Carolina, of his seat and give it to Pearson. Of course Pugh and Boreling know that Crawford was elected.—Washington Cor. Courier Journal.

The recent explanation of Col. Waterson to high priest Walton of why the Courier Journal sometimes puts it this way: "We are a democrat and not a republican," is so suggestive that Mr. Ben V. Smith, of the central committee, this city, recommends the expression as an all sufficient platform upon which to stand our candidate for president. Let this be the watchword of the campaign: "I am a democrat and not a republican."—Somerset Journal.

H. M. Chenault, of Fort Scott, Kan., attended the National Populist convention at Cincinnati as a delegate from the State at large, and told the Cincinnati Enquirer "it is absolutely folly for the republicans to claim Kansas in the approaching presidential election. It will go democratic by from 15,000 to 25,000, certainly not less than the first figure. There are 6,000 or 7,000 German votes that the democrats will get this time on account of the expansion policy of the administration." Mr. Chenault is a Madison county, Ky., product.

A senseless and inexcusable warfare is kept up on Hon. James B. McCreary by some pretended guardians of the democratic sheep pasture. There is no more faithful democrat in Kentucky than Mr. McCreary. There was no more loyal and earnest worker for the democratic ticket in 1896 than Mr. McCreary. Mr. Bryan knows it, and everybody knows it who has cared to inform himself. Ask Jo Blackburn about McCreary. He of all others is capable of judging him, and McCreary today has no firmer friend than Blackburn. The professional peace-makers plead for peace in one breath and in the next deery such men as McCreary. Out on them!—Owensboro Messenger.

THE Kirksville, Mo., Democrat tells of the closing of Miss Beekle Brummett's school at Novinger, which consisted of recitations and music and ending with a big supper. The paper also says Miss Brummett, who is a Lincoln county lady, has given entire satisfaction and has opened another school at Stahl.

AUDITOR'S AGENT.—Senator George T. Farris, who was here yesterday, told us that on his suggestion and that of others, Auditor Coulter appointed our esteemed Lancaster correspondent, M. D. Hughes, Esq., auditor's agent for Garrard county. There are no millions in it, but the office is worth much in some counties.

THE county court yesterday hardly had enough work to keep Judge Bailey and Clerk Cooper awake. Two wills were probated and that was the sum total of the day's labor. N. Velstriger qualified as administrator of that of his father, Joseph Velstriger. J. H. Paxton was named as executor in the will of Faulkner Stuart, but he did not qualify.

PRESSES FOR SALE.—33x45 Cottrell & Sons drum cylinder press, good as new. Prints a sheet twice the size of this impression of the INTERIOR JOURNAL. Or will sell a 14x22 Gordon, used but little. THE Gen. Landram Camp of the Grand Army of the Republic, met here yesterday and decided to attend the State encampment at Lancaster in a body May 24 and 25. Owing to the fact that the Confederate veterans will be in Louisville at the time and it having been their custom to have a union deputation day, it was decided not to observe the day here this year.

THE YOUNGEST.—Mr. Bedell Chancellor is the youngest Confederate hereabouts. He entered the army in 1861 at 11 years of age and became a courier for Gen. J. E. B. Stuart and afterwards for Gen. Rosser. In 1863 he joined the 9th Virginia Cavalry and was guide for Gen. Stonewall Jackson the night he was killed. It was on his father's farm at Chancellorsville, Va., that the general received his death wound from his own men, he having ventured too far on forbidden ground. The old Chancellor house, where Mr. Chancellor was born, is now one of the famous landmarks in the Old Dominion. Mr. Chancellor is not yet 50 years old and is as active as he ever was. He will meet no veteran at the Louisville reunion who served through the war, and is as young as he is.

FOUND DEAD.—Mr. Foster Webb, who bought out Joseph Williamson's stock of general merchandise, &c., at Jumbo several months ago, was found dead in his stable Saturday afternoon. He had gone to McKinney that morning and while there dined at Mr. C. L. Crow's hotel. He was seemingly in good health and spirits when he left for home a short while afterwards and his friends were shocked a few hours later to learn that he had died. The home-folks saw him take his horse in the stable and on his failure to come out they went to see about him and were horrified to find him leaning against the manger of still dead. It is supposed that heart disease was the trouble. Mr. Webb was about 57 years old and left a wife and six children. He came to this county from Hamilton, O., where his body was shipped yesterday for interment, and was an industrious, enterprising man.

Acting coroner W. A. Coffey held an inquest with D. S. Riffe, foreman, J. D. Vocum, W. C. Austin, G. A. Hughes, A. H. Davidson and J. L. Beck, jury, and a verdict was returned that death was caused by heart failure due to chronic articular rheumatism.

EDITOR CAMPBELL, of Somerset, and the INTERIOR JOURNAL swapped items over the telephone yesterday, he giving us an account of the Wayne republican convention and we telling him of the failure of the supreme court to hand down a decision in the governorship case.

THE game of ball between the Stanford and Lancaster teams here Friday afternoon resulted in a score of 15 to 11 in favor of our boys. The game was interesting throughout and some good plays were made on both sides. Higgins and Florence, battery for the home boys, did good work.

OUR committee at Highland, Mr. D. R. Adams, made return of the following contributions to the Goebel monument fund yesterday: T. W. Hutchinson 25c, Cas. B. McGuffey 25c, Ben Baugh 25c, James H. Carter 25c, John G. Baugh 25c and D. R. Adams 25c. Those who wish to contribute had better do so at once as the books are about to close.

MARRIED THREE SISTERS.—W. R. Holly, who had already married two daughters of Capt. James Carter, of Rowland, married another, Mrs. Lena Carter, at Lebanon Junction last week. When Mr. Holly married the second daughter, Mr. Carter remarked that Holly was trying to marry the whole family and sure enough he has married all of the daughters. This makes his fourth matrimonial venture.

WHILE driving near Turnersville Sunday, Miss Annie Bronaugh and Ream Leachman had their horse scare and in his effort to run the buggy was upset and the occupants precipitated to the ground. They escaped injury, strange to say, but the buggy looks like a double-header had struck it. Dr. A. S. Price and Miss Nettie Wray drove along a few minutes after the accident and took Miss Bronaugh in with them, while Mr. L. brought in the horse and what was left of the vehicle.

Desiring to change climate on account of my health, I will sell at private sale my farm of 250 acres in West Lincoln County, Kentucky 2 1/2 miles East of Hustonville, and 1 1/2 miles West of McKinney on C. S. R. R.

This farm and improvements are among the best in the Blue Grass region of Kentucky. The dwelling is a modern brick and frame, metal roof, containing 9 rooms with bath, porch and verandah. Outbuildings include two splendid and commodious barns with 24 box stalls and shed room for 100 cattle or 200 sheep, other buildings include ice-house, buggy houses, meat house, coal house, poultry house, flower pit and good tenant house of five rooms. All buildings are in first-class repair and comparatively new. Never failing orchard of best variety of fruit. The larger portion of this farm is first-class tobacco and hemp land. Abundance of never failing water, four rock walled ponds, in addition to brush through one side of the place. 200 acres of farm in blue grass or meadow, with 50 acres in wheat and corn; fencing in excellent condition and abundance in quantity.

This farm is in good shape for division. If so desired, as it lies almost in a square, bounded on North and East sides by Hustonville and McKinney Turnpike. This home and farm has to be seen to be appreciated. Any one wishing to secure a very desirable place will rarely meet with an opportunity to find this quality on the market. Terms liberal. Any person desiring to inspect the premises are invited to call on or address me at Hustonville, Ky.
